HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

Updated Oct 2025

Introduction

The law says that employers do not have to have a Health and Safety Policy unless they have five or more employees. However, in the case of a Parish Council the members count in the same way as an employee and therefore it is recommended that Councils have a Health and Safety Policy.

Langrville Parish Council serve the residents of Langrick. Langrville Parish Council precept annually and all relevant documentation regarding the running of the Parish can be found on their website or by contacting the Clerk (clerk@langrvilleparish.gov.uk).

Although Langrville Parish Council only employ one employee (the Clerk/Responsible Finance Office) the Council can have up to nine serving Councillors (Members) at any one time and the Members count in the same way as an employee.

The Clerk/Responsible Finance Officer (RFO) works predominantly from home. The Clerk has the relevant insurance in place for home working. The serving Councillors attend bi-monthly meetings at Langrick Village Hall. Health and Safety notices are displayed these venues and first aid boxes are available.

Responsibility for Health and Safety

The Council recognises & accepts its responsibility to provide a safe & healthy working environment for employees, members and the public who may be involved or affected by its operations or activities. The Council will give the greatest importance to requirements of health & safety by considering it a responsibility, equal to that of any other function.

Lana MacLennan-James, Clerk and Responsible Finance Officer has overall and final responsibility for health and safety and day to day responsibility for ensuring this policy is put into practice. The Clerk/RFO is also responsible to ensure health and safety standards are maintained and improved where necessary.

The Clerk/RFO and Members are also responsible to ensure they take reasonable care of their own health and safety and report any health or safety concern to the Clerk/RFO or the Chairman.

Arrangements for Health and Safety
